

Roll & Hill

John Hogan

John Hogan is a Seattle-based artist and designer, working chiefly in glass. His work, which spans the functional and sculptural, seeks to interrupt and augment radiant energy through the refraction of light. Taking influence from traditional Eastern European casting and cutting, projects focus on reductive design.